About US

Discover the exciting world of online crypto gaming, where the thrill of traditional games meets the power of blockchain technology. Immerse yourself in a secure, decentralized ecosystem that offers a new level of transparency and ownership.

As the world of technology continues to evolve, the gaming industry has undergone a remarkable transformation. Online gaming has emerged as a thrilling and immersive experience, where players from across the globe can come together and compete in a vast array of virtual environments. Accompanying this revolution in gaming is the rise of cryptocurrency, a digital currency that is poised to revolutionize the financial landscape of the gaming industry.

Our Mission & Vision

Gaming and esports are the next frontiers of India's growth story in 2024 and beyond or as Zerodha founder tweeted 'the next big thing.' According to Statista, about 421 million online gamers were recorded in 2022 and expected to reach more than 442 million by 2023. Around 90 million paid for activities during the games in 2022. It will generate around 1 to 1.5 lakh direct and indirect employment in coming years.

The gaming industry was introduced in the 1990s in India and had around 25 companies in 2010. The industry has evolved, and according to a KPMG survey, the number of game development companies stand at 275 in 2023.
